Everyday Solidarity: How to provide nonviolent security to threatened communities

Isaac Beachy spent the last two years using the tool of nonviolent accompaniment to reduce risk and open political space for threatened Colombian communities. On January 24th at 7pm at the Historic Roosevelt Center, 215 E. Indiana Ave, Elkhart, he will facilitate a workshop on the possibilities for using this tool in Elkhart County as a way of being in solidarity with migrant communities and all people experiencing racial profiling.
