February 15, 2018

Delegates to Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Conference,

We invite you to a day of worship and discernment for our life together. Among all the things that we could talk about during our time together, we want to center around Jesus. To this end we are organizing the day so our worship and conversations are interwoven. Join us in holding this meeting before God. As we live into the vision delegates adopted last summer at Annual Sessions, we want to share and learn from one another. The vision puts emphasis on the centrality of Jesus in our life (at individual, congregational, and corporate levels); places a high value on our relationships with one another; and expresses a commitment to respond to God’s love for us by sharing God’s love in the world. (Renewing a Vision)

Your presence will be valuable. Each voice makes a difference as we listen and share what is happening as congregations seek to be. We learn so much as we bring our transforming selves to the table. We will worship God, celebrate communion, hear testimonies of God’s transforming work among us, and look toward the future as we keep seeking to live out the gospel in new and ever-changing times.

The day’s agenda and supporting documents are listed below on the website. Please click on the links to bring them up. You are encouraged to print out these documents and bring them along. Look them over and be prepared to engage actively with others around the table.

Grace and peace to you,

Daniel Z. Miller
Conference Pastor
