

Report to IN-MI Mennonite Conference 2021

Did you know?

- Over the past 30+ years we have presented the Anabaptist story to more than 1,025,000 visitors.
- 2020 was a difficult year for Menno-Hof. We were closed because of the pandemic from the middle of March to the beginning of July. We closed again in September for 10 days.
- The Menno-Hof gift shop offers one of the best selections of Anabaptist-related books in the area and we are continually expanding our inventory.
- The gift shop also continues to provide opportunities for local Amish and Mennonite folks to sell their handmade products. Please come check it out!
- Our board members are active members of the four major groups from within the Anabaptist family (Amish, Amish Mennonite, Conservative Mennonite, and Mennonite).

Most importantly...

- We continue to receive very positive feedback from visitors and many of them report experiencing a renewed or enhanced appreciation of their own faith life after their visit.
- We continually give thanks for the support of volunteers, members, donors, church partnerships and board members.
- We welcome your prayers as we move into another year of operation.
- We look forward to what God has in store for Menno-Hof!

Staff:

Jerry Beasley, executive director
Ruth Miller, daily operations manager
Susan Miller, accounting manager
Charlotte Long, program & communication associate
Bill Yoder, facility & grounds associate

Board Members:

Larry Chupp, president, Siloam Fellowship
Lovina Gingerich Rutt, vice-president, College Mennonite
Donna Jones, Riverview Christian Fellowship
Orie E. Lehman, Old Order Amish
Daniel B. Miller, Fairhaven Church
Steve Miller, Woodlawn Church
Jim Neff, Sunnyside Mennonite
Dale Riegsecker, First Mennonite, Middlebury
Wayne Schrock, Milford Chapel
Alvin J. Yoder, Old Order Amish
Fern Yoder, Woodlawn Church
Norman Yoder, Old Order Amish