- Clergy who are interested in learning a proactive approach to managing estrangement in their church
- Church lay leaders who want to gain confidence in their position and how to best manage challenges
- Anyone interested in learning how to manage self and become a positive representative for the church

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT

- Learn how estrangement has played a role in the life of your church and family
- Transform estrangement into restoration and healing
- Learn how to have meaningful relationships with individuals with different opinions
- Overcome tribalism to view the world through a more unified lens

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

American society is fracturing as more and more families experience estrangement with their loved ones. Tensions in American public life affects their private lives and vice-versa. Americans lack a shared identity, disagree on the nation's purposes, values, and history, and are becoming more and more intolerant of those with whom they disagree. Estrangement in private lives often leads to intense tribalism in public life. Anchored in Family Systems, the workshop is designed to help leaders understand the phenomenon of estrangement, how it comes about, and how the church can be a gathering place for restoration and healing.

THE DETAILS

- The workshop will begin at 9 a.m. and last until 4:00 p.m.
- There will be two 15-minute breaks - one in the morning and the other in the afternoon - as well as an hour break for lunch.
- Executive Director of the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center, Jay Wittmeyer, will present the workshop.
- The price for the workshop includes the presentation and any course handouts. Travel, accommodation, and food will be the responsibility of the attendee.
